

The Outlook for Aluminum Foil Packaging

2011 Edition | A Market Study and Desktop Reference

The Outlook for Aluminum Foil Packaging provides an in-depth overview of the global aluminum foil marketplace. Containing statistics and perspectives compiled from personal interviews with aluminum and packaging companies, packaged goods and equipment suppliers, government agencies and investment professionals, this comprehensive, 174-page report is filled with unique information from industry experts that you can't obtain anywhere else:

- Profiles of major worldwide producers and converters of aluminum foil and foil-based materials
- End-use applications and market analysis of each segment
- Analysis of competitive materials including advantages and limitations
- Primary aluminum supply and demand by country
- Aluminum foil import and export data
- Market outlook and opportunities

Who Should Invest In This Study?

- Brand Owners
- Packaging Converters
- Co-Packers
- Aluminum Foil Producers
- Research & Development Managers
- Industry and Investment Analysts

TABLE OF CONTENTS

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

I. INTRODUCTION
 Report Highlights
 Demographic Changes
 A Brief History of Aluminum Foil
 Characteristics of Aluminum Foil
 Foil Usage
 Household and Institutional Foil
 Semi-Rigid Containers
 Flexible Packaging
 Aluminum Foil Imports and Exports

II. THE ALUMINUM INDUSTRY
 Primary Aluminum Production
 Bauxite Mining • Alumina Refining • Smelting
 Secondary Aluminum Production
 Aluminum Supply and Demand
 Aluminum Production • Aluminum Consumption • Corporate Trends

III. ALUMINUM FOIL PRODUCERS
 North America
 Latin America
 Western Europe
 Spain • France • Italy • Luxembourg • Netherlands • Germany
 Austria • Sweden • Greece
 East Central Europe and the Balkans
 Commonwealth of Independent States
 The Middle East and Sub-Saharan Africa
 South Asia
 East Asia
 China • Taiwan • Japan • Southeast Asia and Australia

IV. FLEXIBLE PACKAGING CONVERTERS

V. FOIL-BASED PACKAGING SYSTEMS
 Packaging Functions
 End-Uses of Aluminum Foil
 Aseptic Packaging
 Hot Fill Pouches
 Laminated Pouches
 Confectionary Products
 Cigarette Packaging
 Laminated Tubes
 Multilayer Lidstock
 Pharmaceutical Blister Packaging
 Semi-rigid Foil Trays

VI. COMPETITIVE MATERIALS
 Barrier Resins
 EVOH • Inorganic Coatings
 Metallization

VII. FOIL PACKAGING AND THE ENVIRONMENT
 Recovery and Recycling of Foil-Based Packaging
 Source Reduction and Packaging Efficiency

VIII OUTLOOK AND BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES
 Aluminum Foil Still Matters
 The Emerging Markets Will Dominate Growth
 The Emerging Markets are Now Competitors as Well as Customers,
 Sources of Cheap Labor, and Commodity Suppliers
 Respecialization is Replacing Downstream Integration in the Aluminum Industry
 Aluminum Foil is Becoming More Fragmented
 No New High Volume Foil Applications are on the Horizon
 Consolidation is Occurring Among Flexible Packaging Converters
 Converted Flexible Packaging is Still Years Away from Maturity
 Concerns about the Environment will Continue to Grow
 Future Growth

LIST OF EXHIBITS

Aluminum Foil in Packaging
Global Cigarette Consumption
Global Pharmaceuticals Sales By Region

I. INTRODUCTION

Major Emerging Economies
Industrial and Packaging End-Uses of Aluminum Foil
Aluminum Foil in Packaging
U.S. Household Foil Sales (2005-2008)
Growth in the Flexible Packaging Industry
Aluminum Foil Imports
Imports by Country
Aluminum Foil Exports

II. THE ALUMINUM INDUSTRY

Aluminum Production Cycle
Major Bauxite-Producing Countries
Identified Reserves of Bauxite by Country
Primary Aluminum Output by Country
Worldwide Primary Aluminum Demand
Largest Primary Aluminum Producers-2009

III. ALUMINUM FOIL PRODUCERS

Noranda Aluminum – Rolling Mill Facilities
Aluminum Foil Production and Consumption in Brazil
Aluminum Foil Deliveries – Europe
Novelis – European Foil Plants
China – Aluminum Foil Production (2000-2009)
China – Aluminum Foil Exports (2000-2009)
Japan – Aluminum Foil Shipments

IV. FLEXIBLE PACKAGING CONVERTERS

Largest U.S. Flexible Packaging Companies
Ten Largest European Flexible Packaging Converters

V. FOIL-BASED PACKAGING SYSTEMS

Typical Aseptic Construction
Big Three U.S. Tuna Brands
U.S. Confectionary Volume and Retail Sales
Top Ten Confectionary Producers
Global Cigarette Consumption
Cigarette Consumption by Region
Per Capita Cigarette Consumption
Global Smoking Prevalence
Cigarette Global Market Share by Company
U.S. Laminate Tube Market Share
Global Pharmaceutical Sales by Region
Global Pharmaceutical Sales by Company
Pharmaceutical Blister Packaging Materials

VI. COMPETITIVE MATERIALS

Key Barrier Material Options in Flexible Packaging

VII. FOIL PACKAGING AND THE ENVIRONMENT

Packaging Efficiency

Consumer Packaged Goods – Retail Sales
Rank Group
